

United States Department of the Interior
U.S. Geological Survey
National Wildlife Health Center
6006 Schroeder Road
Madison, WI 53711-6223

Student Position Available
Joomla Webmaster
for the NBII Wildlife Disease Information Node 10-20 Hours/ Week

Education Requirements:

Two years of college minimum

Knowledge and Skills Requirements:

Advanced knowledge about content management systems (CMS/Joomla)

Able to create different layout designs as driven by the content (e.g. text, RSS feeds, images gallery, interactive maps)

Understand how a web service can be used to pull and display content from a local database

Experienced with building a sophisticated search interface within Joomla using locally stored database keywords

Experienced with customizing CMS modules, extensions and site templates as needed (including the modification of PHP code)

Have a basic understanding of the principles of design

Organized and detailed orientated

Able to follow directions, but can initiate innovative ideas

Essential computer skills: CMS administration, database entry, and word processing

Additional Preferences

Familiar with relational databases and web design –e.g. Joomla

Responsibilities:

Add new and/or update CMS content

Assist with adding and managing new CMS modules

Customize CMS modules, extensions and templates as needed

Term

Current through January 2010 with strong possibility of extension

Salary:

Range: $12.63 – $14.17 per hour

Application Requirements:

Current resume and transcript

Social security number at the interview date

Contact:

Victoria Szewczyk
Administrative Manager
Szewczyk@wisc.edu

Note:

The NBII Wildlife Disease Information Node has offices at the National Wildlife Health Center and on campus at the Nelson Institute for Environmental Studies. Upon job training completion, the work schedule for this position is flexible and the majority of work can be performed remotely.