Employer:
Epic

Position Title:
Corporate Education

Description:
Epic is a national leader in software development for healthcare systems. We create and implement a wide range of integrated software for many of the largest healthcare organizations in the country. Our software improves patient care and reduces costs. Over the last 15 years we have seen steady growth, and currently, organizations using our software care for about 157 million people. That means that nearly 1 in 2 people in the U.S. are directly affected by the work we do. Our presence is also growing internationally, with organizations in North America, Europe, the Middle East, Asia, and Africa installing our software to provide better care for their patients.

Beyond all of that Epic is an exciting, innovative place to work.

Do you come alive in front of an audience? Do you thrive on creating "light bulb" moments for others? We're looking for corporate educators who can engage and teach both our customers and our staff. The ideal candidate has a dynamic stage presence, is interested in writing and creating effective learning content, and wants to have a significant impact on the healthcare of the world. You bring your smarts, writing chops, and that je ne sais quoi that hooks trainees and keeps them engaged throughout a multi-day course; we'll teach you the software part.

Qualifications:
• Available for employment in Q1 of 2017
• Bachelor's degree (any major)
• History of academic and professional success
• No technical or software background required. We teach you to be an expert in our applications.
• Prior education/teaching experience a plus, but not required
• Relocation to Madison, WI (reimbursed)
• Eligible to work in the U.S. without sponsorship
